Welcome and Announcements

- CAB members visited the EGPD Open House for individuals with special needs and their families
- Chief announced the Mobile Crisis Response Team in partnership with Sacramento County should launch in early November 2018 - an EGPD officer and Sacramento County clinician have been selected for Elk Grove

Business

- Officer Jennifer McCue gave a presentation on the EGPD's approach to homelessness in Elk Grove - resources, transitional housing, challenges, outreach and intervention
  - Officer McCue recently took on the newly created homeless outreach program at the EGPD full-time

- Member discussion regarding the possibility of tiny homes for transitional housing in the future
- Discussion regarding the potential for a restructured reserve officer program at the EGPD
  - Nothing currently in the works, but Chief is open to this in the future
- Discussion regarding a new mobile application (app) being launched at the EGPD that will provide wellness resources to EGPD employees
  - Desire for additional apps in the future that provide officers with tools and resources in areas such as crime analysis
- Discussion following a member inquiring about the possibility of a citizen review board
  - Chief advised he would not be in favor and would explain the rationale at a future meeting when more time is available for discussion
- Discussion regarding the desire for a Reserve Officers' Training Corps (ROTC) program at Elk Grove Unified School District as an additional way to identify potential officer candidates within our own Elk Grove community

Items for future meetings

- Youth programs/diversion at the EGPD
- Mission statement for the CAB
- Social media discussion with EGPD Public Information Officer
- Presentation on the science of police use of force
  - Force simulator
