COFFEE WITH A COP

Elk Grove Police Department reaches out to the Community

ELK GROVE, CA – Have you ever wanted to ask a police officer a question, but didn't know how to go about doing it? Officers from the Elk Grove Police Department's Problem Oriented Policing Unit will be available to answer questions from members of the community on Wednesday, January 25, 2017 from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at Starbucks (2300 Longport Court #100).

The "Coffee with a Cop" program is a unique way to strengthen the partnership between the police department and the community it serves. "In order to be successful as a police department, we have to continue developing the strong relationships that we already have within the community," said Elk Grove Police Chief Bryan Noblett. "We believe that this type of open dialogue plays a critical role in establishing a true partnership between the community and the police department." Members of the community will be able to ask specific or general questions related to the neighborhoods they live in.

For additional information, please contact Crime Prevention Officer Andrew Bornhoeft at (916) 478-8117. Additional dates and locations will be posted on the Elk Grove Police Department's web site (www.elkgrovepd.org) as they become available.
